SUNY IDS Pilot Project Conference
Held at SUNY Geneseo Library
August 11, 2004

9:00--9:30   Registration
                Coffee, Juice, Pastry

9:30—9:45   Welcome the IDS Fleet Back to the Harbor
                & Conference Logistics   Ed Rivenburgh

9:45—10:15   Review of IDS Pilot Project Background, Goals &
                    Accomplishments to Date   Ed Rivenburgh

10:15-11:00   Project Website Modifications & New Transaction
                 Analysis Tools   Kate Merrill
                                                  Mark Sullivan

11:00—12:00   Review of Transaction Examples & Implications For Project
                                            Everyone

12:00—12:15   Please go through the buffet lunch line outside meeting room. Bring food back into room for "a working lunch."

12:15 –12:45   SUNYConnect Union Catalog and SUNY Expectations
               Regarding Universal Borrowing: An Update
                                          Maureen Zajkowski, OLIS

12:45—1:00   OCLC's Direct ILL Module: Potential For IDS Project?
                                          Jon Penn, NYLINK

1:00—2:00   An Interactive Discussion Among "The IDS Crew"
            Michelle Parry, Oswego   (Moderator)
            Harriet Sleggs, Geneseo   (Recorder)

            Facilitators:
                Kim Meyers, Brockport
                Melaine Kenyon, Buffalo State
                Barbara Kittle, Fredonia
                Jackie Coughlan, SUNYIT

1:00—2:00   "How Can We Better Support Our IDS Staff and This Project?"
             (A separate session for library directors)

2:00--2:30   Session Reports to Full Group

2:30—3:00   Identify New Project Operational Objectives For Fall 2004
               & Spring 2005
                                    EVERYONE

3:00—3:15   IDS Project Continuation Decision: Process &
               Timeline   Ed

3:15—3:25   Concluding Remarks   Mary Alice Lynch, NYLINK

3:25   Return the IDS Fleet to Sea